The screenshot displays the Portland Small Business Hub website. At the top left is the logo for "PORTLAND SMALL BUSINESS HUB". To the right are navigation links: "How it Works", "Business Advisors", "Programs", "Events", and "Language", along with a "Schedule an Appointment" button. The main heading is "Assistance for Your Business". Below this, a paragraph states: "Portland Small Business Hub business advisors can help you connect to financial relief programs, and will provide one-on-one assistance in applying for loans, grants and other opportunities." The page features a filter menu on the left with categories: Business Advising, Cost Saving, Grants, Loans, Marketing, Permits & Licenses, Procurement, Public Safety, and Trash & Graffiti Removal. Below the filter is a search bar. The main content area lists four programs: 1. "Prosper Portland Small Business Repair Grant" with a description of one-time emergency funds for physical damage and a "Learn more" link. 2. "Prosper Portland Prosperity Investment Program (PIP)" with a description of matching grants for tenant improvements and a "Learn more" link. 3. "Small Business Stabilization Restore Grant" with a description of support for businesses experiencing hardships and a "Learn more" link. 4. "Multnomah County Re-beautification Grant" with a description of a partnership to distribute aid to small businesses and a "Learn more" link. A "Contact us" button is located in the bottom right corner.

SBA Funding

Small Business Administration Loan Programs

Banks and other lending institutions offer a number of SBA-guaranteed loan programs to assist small businesses. While the SBA itself does not make loans, it does guarantee loans made to small businesses by private and other institutions.

Here are a few of the benefits:

- Competitive terms: SBA-backed loans generally have rates and fees that are comparable to non-guaranteed loans.
- Counseling and education: Some loans come with continued support to help you start and run your business.
- Unique benefits: Lower down payments, flexible overhead requirements, and no collateral needed for some loans.

Small Business Administration Loan Programs

The Small Business Administration has the following loan programs:

- 7\(a\) SBA's most common loan program
- 504 Long-term, fixed rate financing for fixed assets
- Microloans Smaller-sized loans up to $50,000

SBA COVID Loan Program - Update

Those who received an SBA Covid Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) must begin making payments following the automatic 30-month payment deferral period.

Hardship Accommodation Plan: SBA is offering a Hardship Accommodation Plan for borrowers experiencing short-term financial challenges. Borrowers eligible for this plan may make reduced payments for a six-month period, with the option to renew after the plan concludes.

Beneficial Ownership Information

Starting January 1, 2024, most companies will be required to report information to the U.S. government about who ultimately owns and controls them.

Companies required to report include:

- Domestic reporting companies are corporations, limited liability companies, and any other entities created by the filing of a document with a secretary of state or any similar office in the United States.
- Foreign reporting companies are entities (including corporations and limited liability companies) formed under the law of a foreign country that have registered to do business in the United States by the filing of a document with a secretary of state or any similar office.

Note that some types of entities are exempt from reporting requirements. See the FAQs page for more details.

Existing companies may begin submitting reports on January 1, 2024, and must complete reporting by January 1, 2025.

Companies created in 2024, must report within 90 days. Beginning in 2025, new companies must report within 30 days. Failure to report may result in substantial penalties.
